About the Conference

The growth and development of the society depends upon the most important factor i.e. Education. It is education through which individual personality develops and ultimately leads to a strong and powerful nation. So we can say that when youth enters the premises of higher education institutions must be directed properly so that they will be able to utilize their intellect, strength and emotions to reshape the nation. Higher education level is that stage of education where thoughts, ideas, feelings and strength of pupil can be developed for nation building. It is the stage of transforming youth into the responsible citizens of our nation. With this idea we have organized two days interdisciplinary national conference on Role and Responsibilities of Teachers in Higher Education.
